Gwinnett Braves Release 2012 Schedule

The Gwinnett Braves announced the team's 2012 season schedule today. The G-Braves begin the 2012 campaign on Thursday, April 5th with a seven game road trip covering International League rivals the Durham Bulls (4/5-4/8) and the Norfolk Tides (4/9-4/11). Gwinnett's season-opening homestand begins with the home opener on Thursday, April 12th against Durham (4/12-4/15) and ends with Norfolk (4/16-4/19) a week later on Thursday, April 19th.

The Gwinnett Braves are scheduled to play 144 regular-season contests between April 5th and September 3rd. The 72-game home slate includes 11 contests in April, 18 in May, 11 in June, 14 in July and 18 in August. The team has a pair of season-high 10 game homestands from May 24th-31st and again from August 20th-30th. The G-Braves will be home on Cinco de Mayo (5/5 vs. Charlotte), Mother's Day (5/13 vs. Toledo), Memorial Day (5/28 vs. Lehigh Valley) and Father's Day (6/17 vs. Columbus).

Per International League procedure, the Gwinnett Braves will face South Division clubs 64 times, North Division foes 48 times, and West Division opponents 32 times. Gwinnett's South Division opponents are the Charlotte Knights (Chicago-A), Durham Bulls (Tampa Bay) and Norfolk Tides (Baltimore). Teams in the North Division are the Buffalo Bisons (New York-N), Pawtucket Red Sox (Boston), Rochester Red Wings (Minnesota), Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (New York-A) and the Syracuse Chiefs (Washington). The West Division consists of the Columbus Clippers (Cleveland), Louisville Bats (Cincinnati), Indianapolis Indians (Pittsburgh) and Toledo Mud Hens (Detroit).

A three-day International League All Star Break will take place July 9th-11th. The 2012 mid-season classic will be played at Coca-Cola Field, home of the Buffalo Bison, in Buffalo, NY.
